A SURPRISE IN PHILADELPHIA'S BRIBERY SCANDAL

Testimony in Court That a Judge of the Suprace Court Introduced the Promoter of the Water Scheme—The Latter's Possession in Advance of a Becision of the Court.

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—The Hon, Henry Green, a Justice of the Supreme Court of Penns sylvania, was disclosed in the testimony to-day Mayor Charles F. Warwick and Dr. William Pepper, ex-Provost of the University of Pennarlyania, as the man who first brought to the attention of the authorities of Philadelphia the plan of the Schuylkill Valley Water bill, around which there is now a bribery scandal. The Supreme Court handed down some months ago a decree, accompanied by an opinion written by Justice Henry Green, prohibiting the city of Philadelphia from increasing its public debt for urgent improvements without the sanction of a vote of the people. The vote was taken at the general election in November and the increased debt authorized. But every effort to effect the passage of loan bill in the City Councils in pursuance of this authority for the purpose of filtering the water supply among other contemplated public improvements has been frustrated by the votes of a clique of members in Councils whose personnel leaves no doubt of the source that inspired them. The Mayor of Philadelphia has publicly and plainly imputed this obstruction to the loan bill to the influence behind the Schuylkill Valley Water bill. To-day District Attorney Graham and pianly imputed this obstruction to the ions bill to the influence behind the Schuylkill Valley Water bill. To-day District Attorney Graham took up the thread of his investigation into the charges of bribery in City Councils. It was against his wish that another meeting should be held in advance of the trial of Peter E. Smith, who pleaded not guilty to-day to charges of bribery, upon which he will be arraigned in the criminal court to-morrow. But Judges Briggy and Gordon, who have the investigation before them, insisted that it should go on to-day, and it did, and the disclosures which followed, coming from the only two witnesses called, were equally as sensational as those at the previous meeting, when a Councilium broke down on the witness stand and confessed that he took a bribe to vote for the Schuylkill Valley bill.

The two witnesses were Dr. Penper and Mayor Warwick. Dr. Penper told of an interview which he had with Nelson G. Green of New York at the personal request of Justice Henry Green of this State. Justice Green first called on the doctor, he testified, and afterward arranged for the meeting with Nelson G. Green by a telegram dated at New York. Mr. Green in the interview sought Dr. Pepper's influence in the creation of an advisory board of citizens to agitate the subject of a purer water cupply for this city and to give their moral support to the purposes of the Schuylkill Valley bill.

Mayor Warwick teatified that he had three interviews with Nelson G. Green, general counsel and manager of the Schuylkill Valley Water Company. At the first interview Mr. Green of the Supreme Court, who conducted him to the Mayor's effice. The last interview with Mr. Green, the Mayor said, was on the Monday morning that the Supreme Court that he did not refiece, according to the Mayor's testimony, at 10 o'clock, the hour at which the oninion and an abstract of the court's decree. The Mayor said the was so disappointed at the unexpected action of the Supreme Court handed down its adverse decree on the Mayor. "Them

Seneral Manager of Guaranters Company of PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—Richard F. Loper, Vice-President and general manager of the in the hands of the Governor. At the first Guarantors Finance Company, was arrested and meeting of the committee this question was placed under $25,000 bail to-day to answer the brought up and debate upon it grew so heated sharge of "conspiracy to cheat and defraud the that the whole matter was tabled. People's Bank." The charge was made by Albert L. Taber, receiving teller of the bank. Loper was immediately taken into custody by a constable at the office of his attorney, State Senator John C. Grady, and taken before the Committing Magistrate at the City Hall.

The arrest of Loper followed a meeting of the bank's directors this morning, at which, it is understood, State Banking Commissioner Gilkeanderstood, state Banking Commissioner Gilke-son reported the result of a three days' exami-nation of the bank's books under his direction. What that result is has not been disclosed. John G. Johnson, counsel for James McManes, Presi-dent of the bank, said this afternoon that the directors had acquired considerable information relating to the late Cashier Hopkins's transac-tions, and that this information would be made public in time. Mr. McMaues likewise made a similar statement.

relating to the late Cashler Hopkins's transactions, and that this information would be made public in time. Mr. McMaues likewise made a similar statement.

The directors of the People's Bank have decided to place the bank's affairs in liquidation, and to that end Thomas W. Barlow, Assistant District Attorney of Philadelphis, was named this afternoon as temporary receiver at the request of its President, James McManes. Mr. McManes to-day voluntarily executed a formal agreement to indemnify the creditors of the bank out of his personal estate to any amount which the assets of the firstitution and the assessment Hability of its stockholders may be insufficient to pay. Of the bank's capital of $150,000 over 60 ner cent. Is owned by the estate of William H. Kemble. and McManes holds shares only to the face value of $30,000.

In a public statement issued to-night Mr. McManes says that the examination of the bank's affairs reveals that it has become insolvent through unauthorized and unlawful transactions between its cashler and Richard F. Loper, by which hundreds of thousands of dollars have been diverted to the possession of Loper. The amount of the transactions, which he says occurred at a time when he was ill and absent from the bank's insolvency. His course in executing to the State Bank Examiner an agreement to contribute from his personal estate an amount sufficient to secure the creditors from loss over and above the assets and assessed liability of the stockholders, proceeds, he says, from a desire that the closing years of his life may see no trusting friend or associate a loser through any institution with which his name is connected.

The excess of liabilities over the bank's assets is estimated at $650,000. The capital stock and surplus of $250,000 raise the total liabilities to $1.500,000.

The cierk says that Mr. Hopkins was imploring some one to make a return of some securities which belonged to the bank, and that he then and there made the threat that he would kill himself if they were not returned.

JUDGE GREEN'S INFLUENCE | BROOKLEN AND TANNANT BALL | DILEMMA OF ST. STEPHEN'S

Their Asparent Harmony Is Only on the Surface-Pians of Kings County Londers,

Notwithstanding all denials to the contrary, the relations between the Tammany manager and the Democratic leaders in Brooklyn are far from harmonious. Some important appoint ments, which the Brooklyn leaders were anxious to bring about and practically demanded stillhang fire, while several anug official berths in the borough of Brooklyn have been filled by persons not recommended and not indersed by them. A few Brooklyn men have also been appointed to places in Manhattan and other boroughs outside of Brooklyn without any consultation whatever with the Brooklyn leaders The clear purpose, also, to put the Brooklyn Deputy Commissioners in the rôle of mere clerks to the heads of the departments and boundaries has been credited to the desire of boundaries has been credited to the desire of the Tammany Hall leaders to show the Brooklyn men that they must "play second fiddle" in the government of the Greater New York.

In private the Brooklyn men are kicking like steers, while onemly professing to be on good terms with Mr. Croker and his Tammany associates. Were it not for the absence of Hugh McLaughlin in Florida the mask of friendship would have been thrown off before this and the inevitable light between the two organizations would have been already inaugurated. Mr. McLaughlin has been fully advised of the unsatisfactory situation, and it was announced resterday that he would cut his sojourn in Florids short, and that he might be expected in Brooklyn before the close of the coming week. There have been some things done and some other things left undone during his absence of which explanations will be demanded.

For instance, within a week an important Brooklyn appointment, to which a salary of $6,000 a year is attached, was made with the full knowledge that Mr. McLaughlin would never countenance it, while the appointment of his close personal friend, Henry Hawkes of the Ninth ward, to a $2,500 job is still held up in a most vexatious manner. There is not a ward or even election district in which there is not, for some reason or other, flerce growling at Tammany Hall, and Mr. Croker, so it is predicted, will fully realize the extent of this opposition when the time comes to select delegates to the State Convention, if not before that period.

The Kings county leaders have changed their plans in regard to the organization of the County Committee and the Executive Committee in view of the almost certain prospect of the adoption of the new primary law. Both these bodies under ordinary circumstances would be creatized on next Monday night, but such a course is now deemed useless as there is to be a course is now deemed useless as there is to be a complete reorganization under the new primary law. In June, It is predicted that in the new County Committee e

CITS ARE THINKING AGAIN.

Want to Be Advised Whether to Go Into the Fall Election or Not.

The Citizens' Union Central Committee held a meeting last night, and the members discussed the advisability of the organization taking a part in the elections this fall. There was a difference of opinion. It was finally decided to leave the entire matter to a committee of two to report upon it. This committee was appointed, consisting of Clarence D. Ashley and Soudinot Keith. Many members of, the Union want to have it nominate or indorse candidates for the Assembly and the Senate. They do not believe that it will be well for it to take any position in the Congress or Gubernatorial contest. An east side district leader reported to the permittee that there was a great deal of encommittee that there was a great deal of enthusiasm for the principles of the Union among the laboring people in his district and that many of them had already joined the district organization. The leader told the members of the committee that while the shopkeepers and householders in the district were friendly toward the Union, they were afraid to declare themselves openly or to join the organization because they thought such action on their part would cause them to be subjected to annoyances and persecution at the hands of Tammany Hall city officials. The leader said that the residents of his district were particularly afraid of the police and Health Department employees.

afraid of the police and Health Department employees.

The committee voted to continue in office the special committee of lifty appointed to oppose the Ellsworth Bi-Partisan Rapid Transit bill and to instruct its members to use every effort that lay in their power to hasten the prompt completion of the rapid transit system designed by the present Commissioners. A committee consisting of J. W. Weed of Queens, A. S. Haight of Brooklyn, and E. R. L. Gould of Manhattau was appointed to consider the expediency of indersing a scheme for the early construction of a bridge between Manhattan and Queens over Blackwell's Island.

Brookfield Men Going In to Try Their Strength

The Brookfield Republican General Commitee met at Hardman Hall last evening and decided to indorse the Primary bill which is now however, it appeared as though half the memhers of the committee had prepared inforce ments of the measure and half a dozen resolutions to that effect were offered. Gen. Wager Swayne recognized Mr. William Houston Kenyon. Mr. Kenyon's resolutions urged all the members of the organization to enroll and recommended the district associations to nominate a full reform ticket for mem-enroll and recommended the district associations to nominate a full reform ticket for members of the County Committee to be voted for in June. The district organizations were also urged to prepare tickets in each primary district for delegates to all conventions. Special committees will assist the district associations to carry out this programme and the Finance Committee will collect a fund to pay the expenses of the campaign.

Mr. Kenyon's resolutions provide for a special committee of soven to see that the law is enforced at the primaries, and wind up with the declaration that the Fifty-three's General Committee is a good thing and must be kept alive to promote fair and honest methods of party government. The resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote.

After this Mr. Kenyon read an abstract of the Primary bill, in which its features were explained. The committee voted to have this printed and distributed throughout the city for the voters guidance. Mr. Brookfield had another abstract from the primary election measure, and he also had a resolution, which was adopted, calling for the appointment of twenty-five members of the organization to help carry out its provisions it regard to enrolment and voting at the primaries.

All the city officials who spent Sunday at Lakewood with Mr. Croker got back to work vesterday. Mr. Croker decided not to come up to the city until to-day. During his stay at Lakewood he suffered from indigestion, but his illness was not of a serious nature. None of the Brooklyn men, who it was said last week were going to go down to Lakewood, appeared at the hotel, and no explanation for their non-appearance was made.

CASE OF A CHURCH THAT MOVED WITHOUT PERMISSION.

An Inquiry to Dortdo Whether the Hoy, C. M. Treat Shall Have an Ecclesiestical Trial for Invading Another Parish-Important Questions Involved-A Case Without Precedent in This Protestant Episcopal Discess.

A case without precedent in the history of this Protestant Episcopal diocese was consid ered yesterday at the See House in Lafayette place by a commission appointed by Bishor The commission, which is composed in part of the Rev. Dr. F. B. Van Kleeck of Westchester, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Burgess of Dutchess, and George Zabriskie of this city, is an adthere are facts sufficient to warrant an ecclesiastical trial of the rector of St. Stephen's Epis copal Church, the Rev. C. R. Treat, for holding services in a church in Sixty-ninth street, near the Boulevard, after permission to do so had been refused him by the Bishop and the Standing Committee. The decision will be reported to the Bishop only. It is understood that not all the evidence was heard yesterday.

The trouble grows out of the removal by St. Stephen's congregation of its place of worship

The trouble grows out of the removal by St. Stephen's congregation of its place of worship from West Forty-sixth street to Sixty-ninth street without first obtaining the required permission. The case involves an expenditure of unward of $50,000, and if the present commission reports in favor of an ecclesiatsical trial, there is a threat by St. Stephen's of a counter civil suit.

The property forming in part the subject of the inquiry was a mission established by the late Rev. Dr. George H. Houghton, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration in Twenty-ninth street. To some extent he supported it from his own private means. The curate in charge was the Rev. L. C. Rich. Not long before his death Dr. Houghton sold the chapel rather suddenly and without much consultation with those who worshipped there, to George W. Quintard. It was understood that the property was bought for the use of St. Sienhen's parish, in West Forty-sixin street. The price paid was $55,000. Upon what is now understood to have been a verbal permission from Bishop Potter, or upon what at least was not a formal permission, the transaction was concluded, and St. Stephen's congregation rented its Forty-sixth street church, which it still owns, to the congregation of the Universalist Church of the Divine Paternity, for use until the latter's new edifice in Central Park West is completed. The purchaser of the chapel, still acting in an individual capacity, spent upward of $4,000 last summer in repairs to the chapel.

ward of $4,000 last summer in repairs to the chapel.

Upon Bishop Potier's return from abroad last fall he formally withdrew such permission as he may have given for the removal of St. Stephen's congregation, saying that he had given it under a misapprehension, and that in any event the matter would have to come before the Standing Committee. The matter did come before that committee, which refused the desired permission, and early in December last Bishop Potter formally notified the parish of the fact. The reason for the action was not that there had been an intraction of exact parish boundaries, because there are no such boundaries, because there are no such boundaries, but the consideration that one parish ought not to be permitted to encroach upon the territory of another.

The reason objection was made to St. Stephen's and not to the Transfiguration Chapel is that they are of different types of churchmanship. The old Transfiguration congregation, under the former curate, the Rev. L. C. Rich, has formed an independent parish and now worships in a hall at 233 Amsterdam avenue.

The rector of St. Stephen's, the Rev. C. R.

and now worships in a hall at 283 Amsterdam avenue.

The rector of St. Stephen's, the Rev. C. R. Treat, is ill, but his son, the curate, when seen, admitted that the parish had no permission to worship in Sixty-ninth street. He declared that if necessary the parish would protect itself by a sult in the civil courts. He said that St. Stephen's was not called before the commission, since that body is sitting, not to try the case, but to see if a trial should be ordered.

A prominent member of the Episcopal Church well informed about diocesan matters, said:

"Nothing like this case has ever before happened in this diocese. Here is a congregation, leaving its own place of worship, involving itself, or at least one of its members, in an expenditure of $90,000 and putting its affairs into such shape that it may lose its canonical standing. A suit at law is idle, for the courts will uphold the ecclesiastical position. In that case it would have to close its doors or cease to be Episcopal. The case is a complicated one."

WAS THE WOMAN MURDERED?

Life Was Extinct Sefore the Body Pound a North Beach Entered the Water. Coroner Ruoff of the borough of Queens

last night notified the police that in his opinion the woman whose body was found on the shore at North Beach on Sunday was a victim of foul play. Coroners' Physicians B. G. Strong of Long Island City and Thomas Flynn of Jamaica found by an autopsy that the woman's lungs were filled with air and free of water. This condition, they say, shows that the woman was dead when her body entered the water. Four ribs on the right side were crushed in, and the fractures, the physi-

a powerful blow from a heavy club. According to Coroner Ruoff the body had been in the water about five weeks, and in that time the features have reached a condition that may make a positive identification impossible. Most of the hair, which was brown, has disapof the hair, which was brown, has disappeared, and the condition of the body generally is against a positive identification. The only hope the authorities have of establishing the identity of the woman is by her ciothing. The woman was probably between 45 and 50 years old, the physicians say, and was slightly over five feet tall and weighed about 150 pounds. She wore a jersey waist, a pale green skirt trimmed with black braid put on in the form of scallops, and a short black cape. There were kid gloves on her hands, but their color had been destroyed by the water. The body was discovered by Richard O. Trenchard of 228 West Seventecnih street.

Only one or two resorts are open at this season at North Beach. These places are patronized by young people on Sundays and music and dancing are the attractions. The police supervision of the place is limited at this time of year. The authorities, however, are of opinion that the body was thrown into the river on the New York side or from some passing vessel. Detectives were at work on the case last night.

O'Brien Whips Moore.

NEW HAVEN, March 28.-Dick O'Brien and Dick Moore met here this evening. It was the third meeting of the crack middleweights, one resulting in a victory for O'Brien and the other in a draw. To night they were matched for fifteen rounds. They fought the entire number, and O'Brien won. O'Brien landed fast and furious at the start, and, in the second round, had Moore going fast. Everybody then expected to see Moore finished before the fifth round, but O'Brien lost his wind. and the pugilists fought each other to a standstill. Both got their second wind in the tweifth round. Moore started rushing in the fifteenth, but his strength falled him. On every mix-up he his strength falled him. On every mix-up he dung to O'Brien. As the gong sounded Moore was nearly out. Referee Austin gave the decision to O'Brien. After the fight O'Brien challenged Tommy West and was challenged by Dan Murphy.

The two preliminary bouts were between Charley Kelly of New York and Jack Leonard of Brooklyn, and George Siddons of New Orleans and Danny McBride. Kelly and Leonard fought at catchweights, about 118 pounds each. Kelly won in two rounds.

The Siddons-McBride ten-round bout at 128 pounds furnished the surprise of the evening. McBride received the decision on points. He will meet Martin Flaherty of Lowell at Bridgeport on April 14 for fifteen rounds.

The Douglaston Yacht Club, having decided against purchasing the Bay Ridge house of the Atlantic Yacht Club, has concluded arrangements for building a new house on its property at Bayside, Little Neck Bay. It will be finished by June 1. The annual regatta will be held on June 29. Among the prizes will be the Webster Cup and two others presented by exthe Webster Cup and two others presented by exCommodores Newman and Hoyt. Special prises will also be offered for the knockabout class, and it is the intention of the Regatta Committe to make this year a momorable one in the annais of the clab. The possibilities of the racing dory class, as a beat peculiarly adapted for Little Neck Bay, have been fully recognized, and six of these have been already ordered, with indications that the number will be largely increased. Those who have placed orders are Commodore Clay B. Greene, W. G. Newman, George H. Petit, Charles K. Sayer, Indward Hessels, and W.
H. Johns. It is proposed that these boats be entered in intercibe races with the indian Harbor, Huguenos, and Hiverside clobs, utilising a launch for towing the fleet across the Sound. Weekly races will also be held on Little Neck Bay for this class, with a special large to be awarefed to the skipper winning the most points during the season, and other prime for ladevidual races. WANT THE POREMAN DISCHARGED Beamskers Quit Work Because of Grievance

A number of employees in Dodge & Bliss's box factory at Westside and Van Keuren ave nues, Jersey City, quit work yesterday morning because the firm had refused to discharge Fore man Eugene Riley. The men say that fifty of the seventy men are on strike, and that the others will be out to-day. W. F. Brown, secretary and treasurer of the concern, says that only twenty-five men have quit. A committee, Mr. Brown said, waited on the firm last work and demanded the foreman's discharge. They al leged that he was untruthful and untrust worthy, and that he pushed the men too hard with work. Riley has been in the employ of the with work. Riller has been in the employ of the firm twenty-eight years.

"We are satisfied with his work," said Mr. Brown, "and will back him up. We cannot allow the men te dictate to us who their foreinan shall be or shall not be. We would lose all control of our employees if we did."

The men say that Riley has lied to the firm about employees and caused their discharge because he had a private grudge against men. Another grievance is that he expects too much work of them. Trouble was expected at the factory, and the reserves from the Oakland avenue police station were called out to preserve the peace. The strikers made no demonstration yeaterday.
